Wolfgang Mitterer, Birgit Minichmayr

Sopop!-Release

Wolfgang Mitterer writes music for large symphony orchestras and opera houses. Tames huge concert organs with his bare hands and supported by samples. Hauls his music into soccer stadiums or quarries, composes for caterpillars, thousands of choristers or a sawmill. Now this cheerful commuter between musical genres has embarked on a journey into the world of pop. And the perfect sound, too, for actress Birgit Minichmayr, celebrated star of the Wiener Burgtheater and Berliner Volksbühne. Her smoky and sensual voice snuggles up to cool sound samples, succumbs to the beat, and gets into the groove together with a crew of multi-stylistic instrumentalists.
