With "Gravity", Son Of The Velvet Rat introduces a sideshow in the vein of Trash Pop. In this case, form and content deliberately do not produce a symbiosis but are rather on a path of collision. Why not dance if the essential questions of life are being left unanswered: "Is anybody out there waiting – you never know!"

In contrast to the familiar down beat tempos of previous Son Of The Velvet Rat releases, the 5 new songs on "Gravity" embrace a more accelerated tempo. The instrumentation on "Gravity" takes a new turn on Son Of The Velvet Rat's familiar piano/accordion arrangements and introduces electric guitars and 70s French pop inspired keyboards.

Once again, Ken Coomer (Ex-Wilco) arranged, produced and played drums on these new tracks.
